

After several years of war service these sturdy Polish-American soldiers, recruited from all over the United States for service with the Polish army in France, returned to this country a few days ago. Photograph taken aboard ship.

Wide World photo.

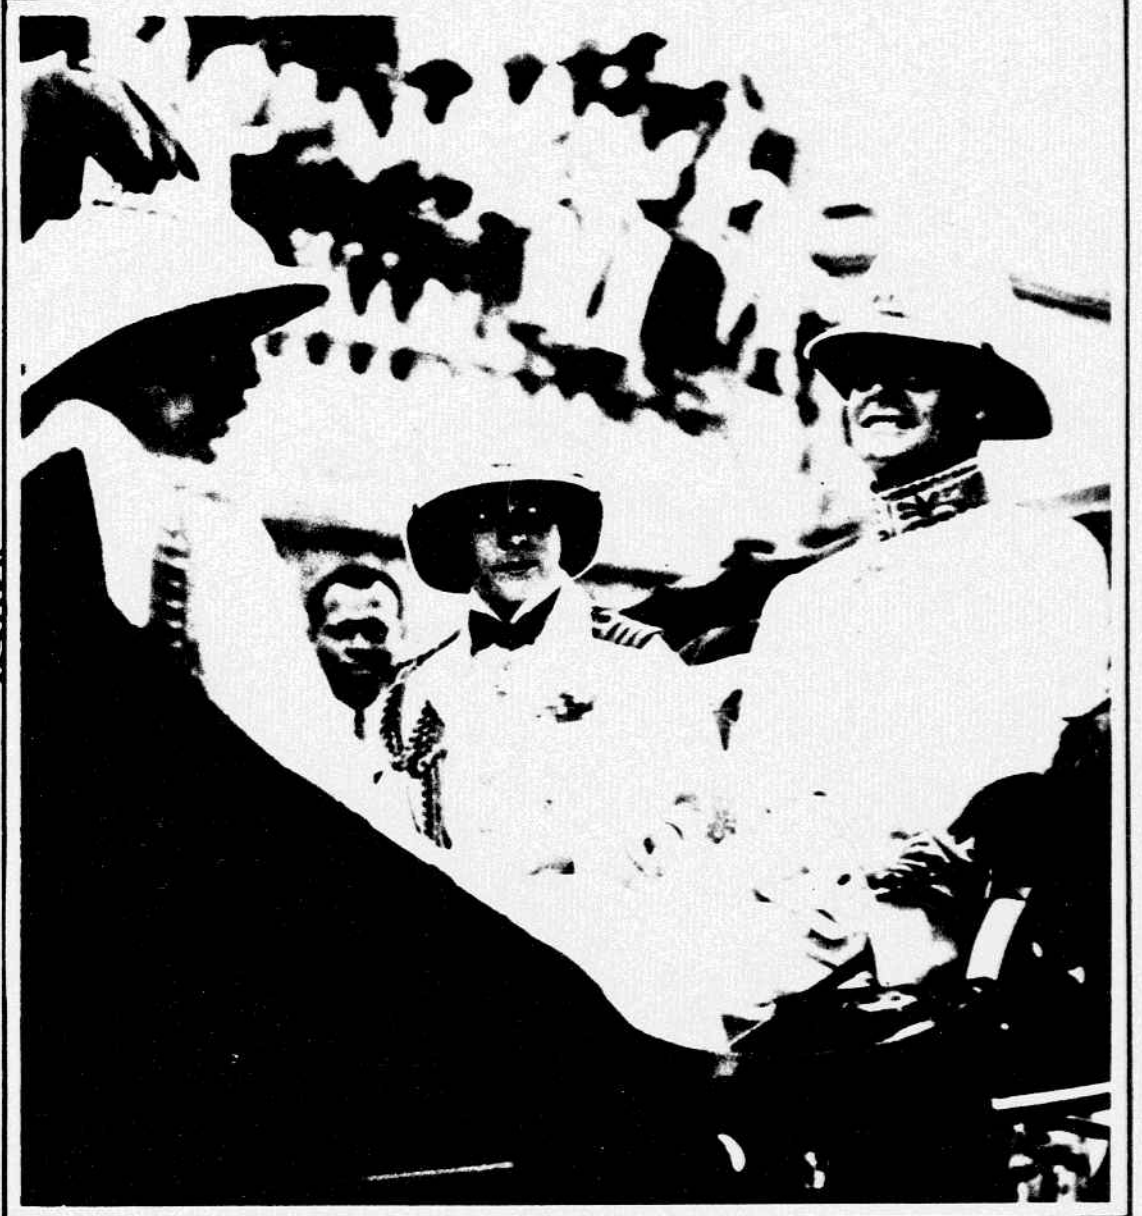

Heinie Groh and his grotesque bat. Heinie is a member of the champion Cincinnati Reds. He is the inventor of this odd "slugging stick," which he claims is far superior to the ordinary base ball bat.

© Keystone View Co.

A bust of Sovereign Grand Commander George Fleming Moore presented by the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite of Italy to the Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. The bust is of bronze, with African marble pedestal.

The Prince of Wales reviews veterans of West Indian wars while in Panama. Sir Percy Bennett, British minister to Panama, at right. The prince is arrayed in all his royal cords and knighthood badges, wearing the English naval officer's summer suit.

Wide World photo.

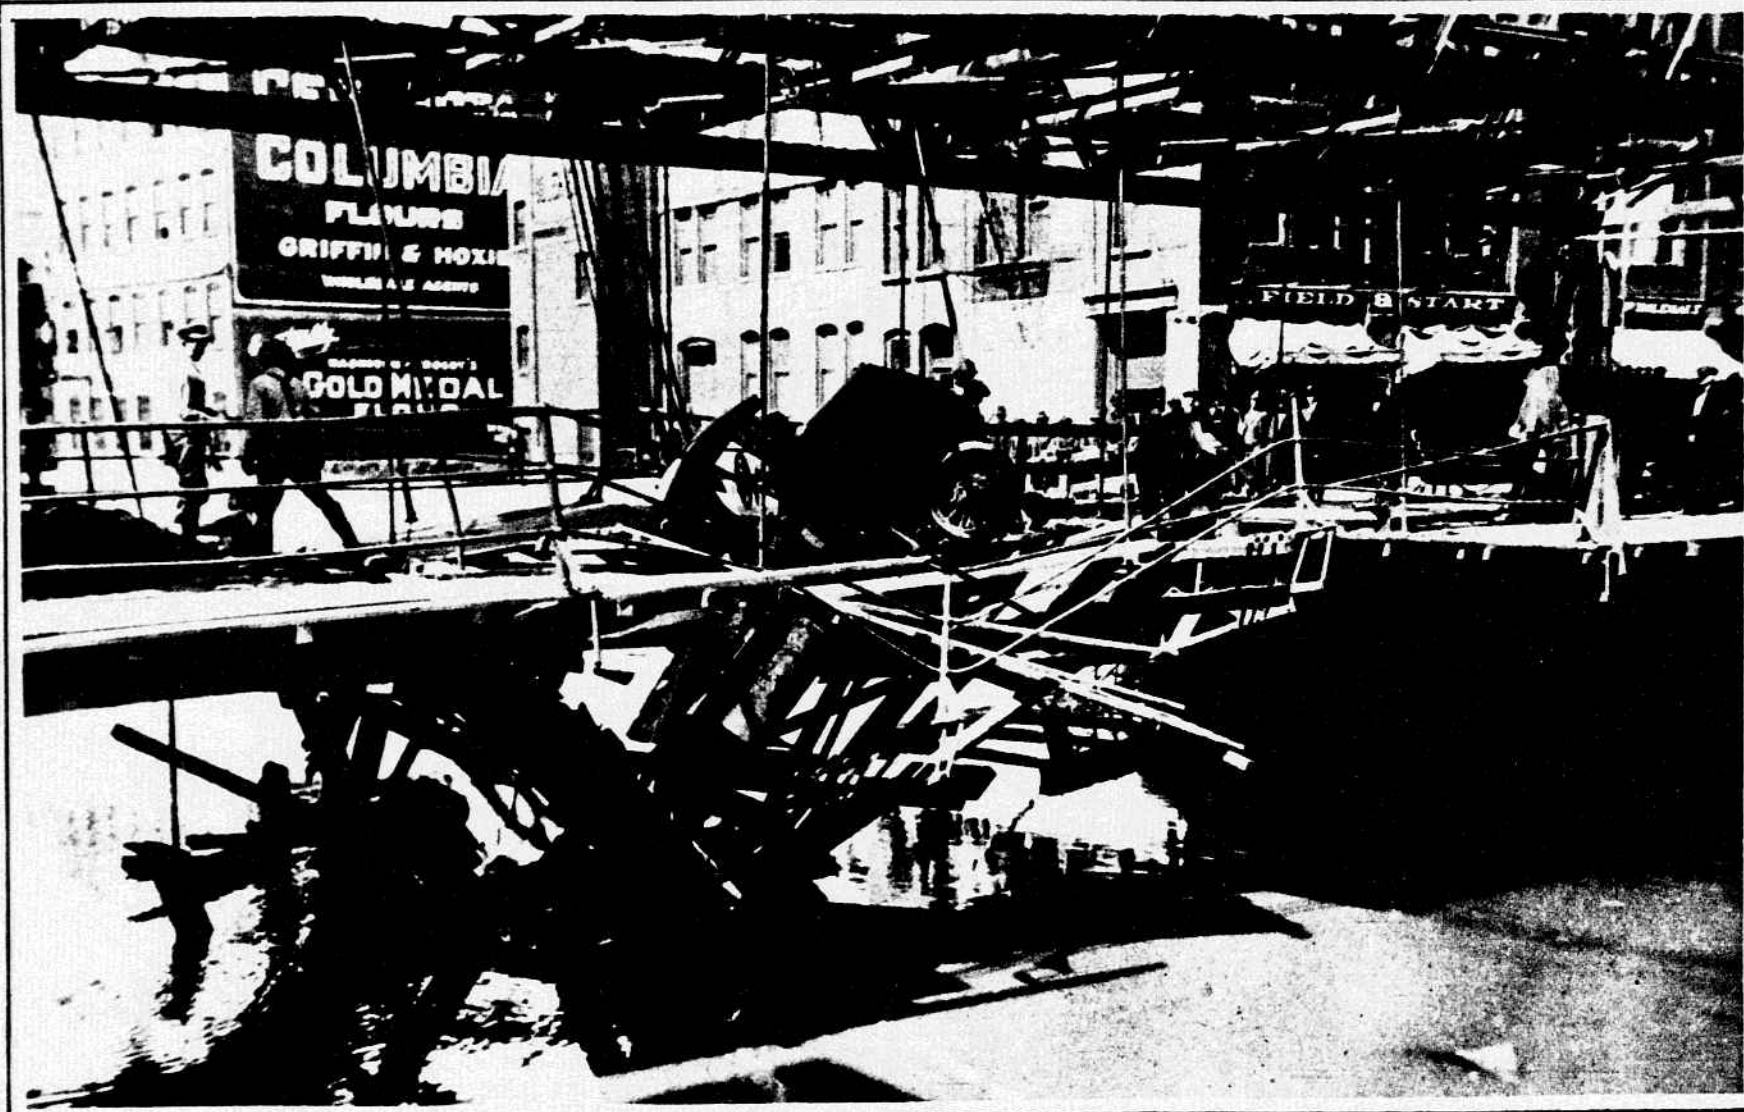

Taffeta rules the world of fashion at the present moment. This smart afternoon frock is embroidered in silk and chenille and trimmed with velvet.

Wide World photo.

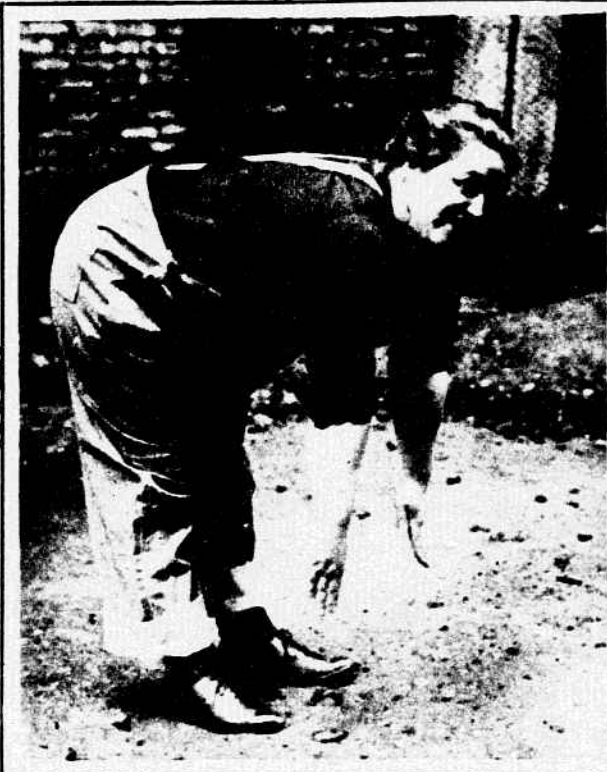

Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts is the first presidential aspirant to join the over-all movement. But he wore the suit only on the occasion of planting a tree on the state-house lawn. Mrs. Coolidge is assisting him with his "jumper."

By International Film Service

While en route to Brooklyn the automobile in the photograph fell through one of the bridges at Utica, N. Y., the planking giving away and the truck hanging by its two front wheels. The driver and his assistant escaped uninjured.

Wide World photo.

A dainty Chicago maid who has joined Dr. John Dill Robertson's free class of how to reduce weight. Dr. Dill, who is a health commissioner of Chicago, claims to have obtained splendid results from his classes.

By International Film Service

Fashion makers have decided that no garment shall be more ornamental or graceful than the negligee. This one is made of pastel satin, with a coat effect of chiffon and lace trimmed with ribbon.

Wide World photo.